

Please do not support NAB's petition 04-160. I switched to satellite radio because I was tired of the commercials and other problems with regular radio. Satellite radio is no different than satellite television, I pay for what I want.